

THE MEWSLETTER

News, useful tips and a little bit of cat chat

FIRST EDITION • FOR CAT PEOPLE IN LU6

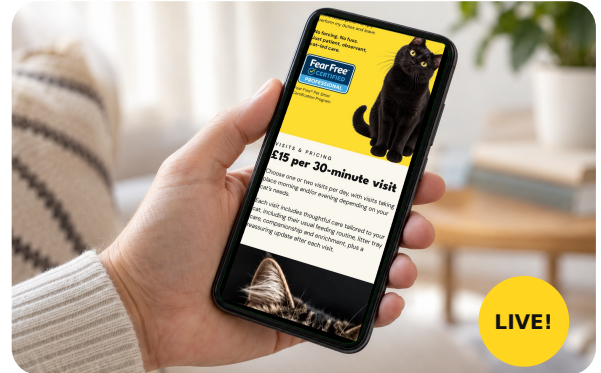

My new website is live

I've been busy behind the scenes creating something new, and I'm so excited to finally share it! After lots of designing, tweaking and more tweaking, sittingkittywithcaroline.co.uk is officially live!

You can now find everything in one place - visits, prices, booking, cat-led care tips and easy ways to get in touch.

FROM CAROLINE

A very busy August

August brought familiar faces and new whiskers, with every visit shaped around the cat in front of me. I read body language, respect choice and adjust each interaction to their confidence, routine and mood. Alongside the practical jobs, there was gentle companionship, choice-led play and enrichment tailored to age, personality and energy.

Thank you for trusting me with your cats and homes - it really is the loveliest job.

INDOOR ADVENTURES

Box clever this autumn

Not every cat is an outdoor cat. When autumn rain keeps outdoor explorers inside for longer, why not make home an adventure? Save those Amazon boxes for hideaways, tunnels and treat trails. Indoor-only cats will enjoy the extra novelty too.

AUTUMN CARE

Cosy season

As the evenings draw in, check your cat's microchip details are up to date and make sure they have a warm, draught-free sleeping spot. A quiet retreat can also help when fireworks season arrives. For a little cosy-season treat, lovely local Jo at Kitty's Rawr Store has a wonderful selection of cat food, treats and toys.

Planning time away?

Visits are 30 minutes and available once or twice a day in the LU6 area. Booking early is always best, especially around school holidays.
